UNIVERSITY OF [illegible]

Notification No. 9590, dated the 27*th March* 1925.

The following are the new syllabuses in French for the Entrance a[nd] Degree Examinations:—

AIMS AND SCOPE.

I. The course is designed to teach a sound knowledge of Literar[y] enable students to write clear and idiomatic French, to translate wi[th] fluency and to appreciate the classics of French Literature. Though t[his] does not aim at giving the power to speak the language accurately, yet it [will] enable students to express themselves with some approximation to accuracy in speech and follow, even in the earliest lessons, simple questions and commands in French and simple assertions spoken clearly and deliberately. Students will be expected to learn their grammar and syntax more by ear than by eye, depending chiefly on their sense of, and feeling for, sounds and intonations when they learn the commoner idiomatic expressions, the position of pronouns, verbal forms, the order of words in negative-interrogative sentences, etc.

To attain this object, the early lessons will be devoted to the phonetic explanation of the sounds of the language and their production. Practice in speaking will be continuous throughout the course.

1. UNIVERSITY ENTRANCE CLASS.

For the Entrance syllabus three hours a week and not less than ninety hours a session will be required for class work. Home work for one or two hours a week is absolutely essential.

The University Entrance Examination will test the students' ability to translate from a prepared prose text—about 30 pages octavo—of easy narrative prose; also to translate at sight easy narrative prose of fairy story or fablian type; to translate sentences into French on lines indicated in the question paper. This examination will also test the students' knowledge of grammar and syntax, such as is demanded by the following syllabus.

N.B.—The prepared translation will be less important than the rest in the Examination.

Verbs.—1. Auxiliary verbs: Avoir, Etre.

2. The four regular conjugations. Formation of tenses. Simple and compound tenses. Active and passive voice.

3. The following irregular verbs: Aller, Envoyer, Dormir, Mentir, Sortir, Ouvrir, Offrir, Venir, Tenir, Acquerir, Mourir, Courir, Devoir, Savoir, Pouvoir, Vouloir, Valoir, Voir, Plaindre, Joindre, Conduire, Construire, Nuire, Luire, Ecrire, Vaincre, Suivre, Rire, Dire, Faire, Mettre, Prendre, Battre, Connaître, Naître, Croire, Plaire, Taire, Lire, Boire, Conclure, Résoudre, Vivre.
